Going After Grover.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 26.—A. W. Alton of New Jerusalem, Tex., was arrested upon a charge of insanity. He arrived over the Southern Pacific from Houston, Tex., and claims that he was not satisfied with the way Grover Cleveland was running affairs, and was on his way to Washington to kill him, when intercepted by officers. He was locked up in an end cell last night, which he almost demolished during the night. He tore the boards from the wall and did considerable damage. He was almost nude this morning when the officers removed him from the demolished cell to another.

Alton claims also that somebody is after him to do him up. In his ravings he sees all kinds of demons, and this morning said that he could raise the dead, and make the sea give up its treasures. He says he has a wife and several little brothers, and thinks they will come to his rescue and release him from jail.

Judge Cain remanded Alton to the workhouse to be examined by the city physician.

Must go to Jail.

MADERA, Dec. 26.—W. F. Baird, the noted forger of the Madera Bank and John Brown colony, was arrested today, the Supreme Court having overruled his appeal, and he will be taken to the Fresno jail for thirty days, at the expiration of which he will be taken to the penitentiary to serve a six years' sentence.

Baird was convicted in Fresno county two years ago on two charges and sentenced to six years on the first and three years on the second charge. The Supreme Court had sustained the appeal on the second charge and tomorrow was set for retrial.

Baird is bitterly disappointed in the decision of the court, as he had hoped for a retrial, confident that no jury from this county would convict him.

North Berkeley in the Cold.

The refusal of two members of the Board of Trustees to vote for, as a successor to C. S. Preble of North Berkeley, a man who resides in that portion of the town, has created no little amount of indignation. There must be some reason why these men ignore North Berkeley. It is as much entitled to representation in the counsels of the town as one from any other section. The people naturally supposed that no man of that district would be entitled to the position. Furthermore the public wants to know why all business of the town is kept in the back ground by the two trustees who are opposed to any representative from North Berkeley. Give some good reason or rest under the ban of an outraged community.

Pit a Pat.

The patting of Acton on the back by the Advocate reminds one of the time when the senior Senator of California was a candidate for re-election to Senatorial honors. It was at the inaugural ball and his daughter was present. Members from some of the counties were somewhat rural. She had danced with one of them twice, and he wanted to have her for a partner once more. She appealed to her chaperone. The decision was, "You must dance with him again, my dear; he is a member."

Another Ananias Pretender.

We are led to believe that Ananias died quite a number of years ago. Since his decease there have been any quantity of people desirous of having his mantle fall upon them. Pretty much all have been pretenders like Tichborne. Once in awhile there will be some person leap up and claim the toga. In America Eli Perkins got the sympathies of the people for the time being. On the Pacific Coast members of the Sazerac Lying club sought the honor (?) Now comes the Advocate. In the edition last evening, at the head of the editorial columns, editor unknown, and says that the town printing was awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. Ananias probably turned over in his grave and that may have been the cause of the wind storm. To add insult to injury the paper says the Freeholders endorsed the action of the present Board of Trustees in the most public manner.

If this is the sum and substance of the work of the Freeholders may the Lord have pity on their souls. The paper would have the public believe that it speaks by the card in announcing the opinion of this body of men chosen to look after the interests and welfare of Berkeley. Do they endorse the fact of taking 40 cents out of the pockets of property owners when they need only take half of that sum? Get thee to a tannery where lye is used to take the wool from the hide.

Women at Work.

Some seventy-two women residing in Temescal have sent an address to the women and liberal voters of Oakland, asking them to oppose annexation. The women have signed the address and have made a strong plea for their cause. They say that the boundary line, as at present proposed, is arbitrary and unjust, because it deprives them of the control of the water front on the west. They are willing for annexation, provided the boundary line is changed so as to take in the water front. In their appeal they say:

Many of us would take a pride in "Greater Oakland," with a reference for a consolidated city and county government, notwithstanding the fact that our present tax rate of $1.48 would be materially increased, but we most earnestly protest against the sacrifice of the water frontage upon the harbor, of which the citizens of Oakland are so justly proud. As we are not voters we have no direct voice in the matter of fixing the boundaries and must look to you for active assistance in circulating a petition outlining the boundaries satisfactory to us, to be signed by 20 per cent of the voters of Oakland, for presentation to the Council of your city. In making this appeal we feel confident that the hundreds of ladies who have suffered from injustice of taxation without representation will render our cause such assistance that in the future we shall merit at least a reasonable consideration in all matters pertaining to taxation in the community in which we reside.

The Temescal women propose to have numerous petitions circulated in Oakland against annexation as at present proposed.

Marriage Bells.

The swell wedding announced in the GAZETTE last week to take place at the West End last night. It was strictly a family affair as far as attendance was concerned. At the residence of Mr. Samuel Heywood on Delaware street the intended parties Mr. George D. James of Fresno and Miss Laura A. Dingley, sister of Mrs. Samuel Heywood, preceded by the Rev. G. H. Jones of Oakland, formerly pastor of the West Berkeley Methodist church, marched into the parlor and taking their places under a marriage bell made of smilax and chrysanthemums, awaited the word that would make them one.

The wedding march, Wagner's Lohengrin, was beautifully played by Mrs. C. E. Burns, as the company proceeded into the room.

The ceremony was soon performed then came congratulations of the relatives and friends present. This over with the whole party sat down to the wedding meal which had been so sumptuously prepared for the bride, groom and friends. The table was loaded with all the delicacies of the season and was beautiful to look upon.

Leaving the happy people to refresh the inner man as it were, let us look about and see the rooms so handsomely decorated with ferns, holly berries, branches of the pepper tree and boughs of the cypress. The marriage bell alluded to had a background of fern leaves amid which was a wreath of china asters, having a wax figure of Cupid swinging in the center.

There was the bride's cake, which she had formally cut. It was certainly decorated by an artist. A sugar wedding bell surmounted it. The wedding presents were both valuable and useful. Among them were a silver cake basket from Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Dingley; silver knife and sugar spoon, Mrs. T. E. Knox; silver cake knife, Mrs. J. Everding; Spanish work pillow slips, Mrs. Nettie Serda; silk cushion, Miss Carrie McVey; half dozen silver teaspoons, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Curry; silver sugar spoon, W. E. Dingley; ornamental silver card basket, Miss Ollie Squires; souvenir spoon, Mrs. J. O. Byxbee of Fresno; half dozen solid silver tea spoons, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Heywood; silver salt and pepper shakes, Jennie Morris; a tidy, Sallie Klopp, Pennsylvania; mirror in silver frame, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wiggins; onyx clock with ornament from the bride's nephew, Charles D. Heywood; triple mirror in embossed leather frame, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burns; a large Saratoga trunk, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Heywood; gold sugar spoon, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foy; Angora mat, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rose of Emigrant Gap; a beautiful vase, Carrie and Eugene Dingley; a very handsome piano lamp, Maud A. Heywood; a complete china tea set, Mrs. A. Knox and Mrs. McQueen.

After the supper was over the bride and groom, duly saluted with rice and old shoes, took their departure for Oakland in a carriage; from there to San Francisco where they will remain for several days.

They will receive their friends at the residence of Mrs. Samuel Heywood, 812 Delaware street, on the first Wednesday in January, in the afternoon and evening.

The guests were Mrs. L. D. Dingley, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Heywood, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Dingley of San Francisco, Mrs. J. Squires, Mr. and Mrs. T. Knox, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foy, Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Jones, Rev. A. M. Bailey, Mrs. J. Everding, Mrs. C. E. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wiggins, Miss Carry McVay, Frank Heywood, Miss Carrie Dingley, W. Dingley, Miss Ollie Squires, Miss Amy Heywood, W. E. Squires, Miss Jennie Morris, Miss Elsie Everding, James Everding, Eugene Dingley, Misses Ella and Gertie Heywood, C. W. Heywood, Russell Dingley, Charles Dingley, Miss Grace Curry, Chas. D. Heywood and the Misses Serda.

The GAZETTE acknowledges the receipt of a slice of wedding cake, and extends to the happy couple a wish that their happiness may never be marred.

Of Public Interest

Four different candidates for the position of Trustee, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. C. S. Preble, have been nominated either by Trustees Whiting or Hadlen, and yet Trustees Stubenrauch and Acton refuse to vote for any one of them, thus blocking all the town's business. What do the people of Berkeley, the property owners or any one else interested in the town's welfare think of such action? Birds of a feather flock together, and the Advocate is in the very same swim. Anything to beat North Berkeley Tray, Blanche, Sweetheart and all the dogs.

Shot Her Husband.

GALESBURG, Ill., Dec. 26. Chas. E. Johnson was shot by his wife, Ida E. Johnson, in the office of Attorney John Malley, this afternoon and is now in a precarious condition. Mrs. Johnson, alleging brutality and intemperate habits, had begun separate maintenance proceedings. Attorney Malley got them together this afternoon to effect a reconciliation. While alone the woman drew a revolver and fired two shots, one taking effect. She gave herself up.

While raising as Chris. Parker and others were handling a pile at the outer end of the wharf, it got away from its chains, and falling upon Mr. Parker's leg broke it. He was immediately conveyed to his residence on Third street between University avenue and Addison street. Dr. Eastman was summoned and soon had the unfortunate man attended to.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

Almost the first thing to attract the attention of a visitor to any place which he may be visiting is the condition of its thoroughfares. If they are in good condition so that he can walk or ride about the town without any inconvenience it naturally has a tendency to give a person a good opinion of the authorities or the people for having them in such good order. On the other hand if the streets are in bad condition, in fact in many places almost impassable, he immediately becomes disgusted and expresses his opinions in a pretty strong way, not desiring to go about any more for he feels that everything else is within the same keeping. In Berkeley quite an advance has been made in the past two or three years. Just sufficient, perhaps, that we may see how badly the unimproved streets do look. More has been done in the way of putting in sewers than macadamizing street. This is a preliminary work which has to be done and counts in the end although it does not show on the surface. Wherever the sewer work has been completed there the work of grading, curbing and macadamizing should immediately follow.

The objection raised to doing this has been that it would tax the property owners too heavily to have all of these improvements made at once particularly when times are as hard as they are now. The objection may be well taken financially, but is there not a way to fix this financial matter so that the improvements may go on and the town be benefitted by them and the property not distressed.

We think the bond system would apply here and meet the want. It may be somewhat cumbersome in carrying out, but it effects the object in the end and everybody would be satisfied. It is a subject that will bear thinking and talking about, until the people become thoroughly acquainted with its details. It would be good subject matter for the Improvement Clubs to discuss in their meetings. When once fully understood we think the people would like the system, and by it a very large amount of territory could be improved at the same time, which any one can see would give work to a large number of people. This would cause a circulation of money to take place, which naturally makes business for everybody in the town and gives it a lively and consequently a pleasant appearance.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees will take place this evening. It is to be hoped that the public's interest will be well taken care of.

A Wind Storm.

A wind storm of forty eight hours duration has been prevailing in Berkeley. It comes in gusts, noticed perhaps more particularly through the night than in the day time. Coming from where the snow lies deep it is laden with a cold storage quality which hardly a very overcoat can withstand. From present appearances it will last three days as of old. It is a long time since Berkeley has had such a siege of wind, notwithstanding the Trustee meetings.

F. A. Ross, assistant superintendent of the Piedmont Cable Company, has resigned his position and will go north in a few days on a business trip. The employees of the road gave Mr. Ross a surprise yesterday. They presented him with a handsome gold watch and a well worded address signed by a committee. Ross is one of the most popular railroad men in Oakland.

The rainfall about the Bay has been nearly twice as much this season as last year up to this date. Nearly 11 1-4 inches have fallen this year.

In the East, from St. Paul on, the cold weather is floating about in a much greater degree than here. Heavy snow storms are reported all along that line.

The meeting of the Board of Trustees tonight being an adjourned one, any business of the town may be taken up. It is probable that much of the time will be taken up filling the vacancies which have occurred.

LATER—Since the above was in type we learn that the trustees adjourned on Monday night as usual and called a special meeting for this evening.

The Southern Pacific Company has issued an order that all men employed on their street-car lines in Oakland must give a bond in the sum of $250. This new order will take in all the men employed on the San Pablo avenue and Telegraph avenue lines. No man will be allowed to work on the road who does not put up the bond.

THE Southern Pacific Railway Company won its fight before the City Council of Oakland last evening in regard to placing gates at the crossings of Webster, Broadway and Washington streets, where the former streets cross Seventh street. Henry Dalton was the only member of the Board who fought the railroad company.

The funeral services of Mrs. Eleanor Le Conte were held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her son, L. J. Le Conte, on the corner of Dwight way and Mark street. Rev. Benjamin Akerly, formerly rector of St. John's Episcopal Church of Oakland, and an intimate friend of the family, conducted the services. Mrs. Le Conte's remains were interred in Mountain View Cemetery, the following gentlemen serving as pall-bearers: Martin Kellogg, Frank Soule, George C. Edwards, Warren

Wilkinson, Benjamin Morgan, J. M. Sutton, J. West Martin and A. S. Hallidie.

Supervisor Johnson was in Berkeley this morning to find out what he could do for his constituents in this section of the county.

The West Berkeley Progressive Club will hold its regular meeting this evening at Paine & Dickieson's office on University avenue at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested, as important business will come up before the Club.

The Railroad Company should see to it that the alarm bell at the crossing of University avenue, West Berkeley, be made to ring.

D. D. Williams, a Nevada State Senator, lately residing on Ashby and Shattuck avenues, died this morning of typhoid malaria.

Clifford McClellan underwent the painful operation of having a tumor cut out of his forehead. The surgical work was performed by Dr. Payne, and the patient appears to be getting along very well.

The Unitarian Church Society gave an indoor picnic last evening, in Odd Fellows Hall. It was well attended, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

There came very near being a conflagration on Telegraph avenue and Derby street last night. The chimney in the house of Mr. Charles Emslie caught on fire and the high wind caused the sparks to fly around pretty well. Charles Emslie managed to get upon the roof and with some buckets of water managed to destroy the vitality of the sparks and thus save the paternal mansion.

Solid Christianity.

Night before last when the usual services of the Salvation Army had come to a close the air was so cold that both the male and female converts stood shivering on the corner of Shattuck avenue and Center street waiting for an electric car to come along for them to get on board.

Fred Fonzo happened to see them and with his quick perception took in the situation immediately. He invited them all over to his cafe and gave them a nice lunch in the shape of coffee and good eatables to go with it. With many thanks for his kindness the little band soon after went on their way rejoicing, feeling that good can always come out of Nazareth.
